

INLAND PACIFIC BUILDERS INC. DONATES TO LOCAL FOOD BANK

SANTA MARIA, CA (November 23, 2005) – Local new home developer, Inland Pacific Builders, Inc., continued the company's tradition of giving by recently donating $2,500 to the Food Bank of Santa Barbara County. Michael Cardona, VP of Construction for the company, delivered the check to the Food Bank on Friday, November 18th. Last year, the company donated 1,000 turkeys to help those in need in the area. Inland Pacific Builders, Inc. (IPB) is spearheaded by President Gary Grossman, and CEO Dave Daniels. The company has become a leader in new home construction for almost two decades, building over 1,500 homes on the California Central Coast. In addition, IPB was recently voted First Place in Santa Maria Valley as the best local builder and developer. Current and future projects in Santa Maria include The Estates at Pacific Crest, Westfield at Pacific Crest, Vista La Ventana, The Villas at La Ventana, Centennial Square, and Sunrise Terrace. For more information on IPB projects call 1-800-421-4470 or visit www.inlandpacificbuilders.com.
